GLOSSARY OF HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES, CEREMONIES & STUDY OPPORTUNITIES

We recognize the High Holy Days are wonderfully full at Holy Blossom Temple, so we have created a guide that will help you make the most of the season.

We look forward to welcoming you.

For expanded service descriptions, schedules, and additional insight, scan the QR code or visit holyblossom.org/hhdglossary5787/.

Many services, ceremonies, and study opportunities are open to all congregants without pre-selection (see page 2). This year, the main High Holy Day Services are organized into “streams.” Please select the schedule that’s right for you when completing your membership renewal form.

If you have questions or would like guidance in choosing the High Holy Days Service stream that’s best for you, we invite you to contact the Temple Office at 416-789-3291 ext. 273 or write to tickets@holyblossom.org.
